SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

1. The Ministry of Social Welfare is the former Ministry of Labor. It is located in Bucharest, Piata Kuibisev (formerly Piata Lahovari). The Ministry is made up of the following departments: Administration; Rehabilitation of War Invalids; Planning; and Social Welfare, which has sections concerned with summer camps for children, family welfare, and care of juvenile offenders.
2. There are a number of summer camps on the Black Sea coast. This is a closed frontier area and permission to travel in this zone must be obtained from the Militia of the Tudor Vladimirescu district in Bucharest. The permit (Autorizatie de Calatorie) usually includes two photographs, is limited to either 24 or 48 hours, and states what type of transport is to be used by the bearer. The permit has to be stamped by the Militia every time its owner enters or leaves any town in the frontier zone.
